The National Council on Disability Affairs (NCDA) leads the celebration of Women with Disabilities Day every last Monday of March pursuant to Presidential Proclamation No. 744, s. 2004 in partnership with Philippine Commission on Women and other concerned organizations.

The Day's celebration aims primarily to promote and highlight the rights of women with disabilities to ensure equal access to health services, education, training and employment, and protection from sexual and other forms of abuse, among others.

This year's theme "Juanang May Kapansanan, Kapasyahan Mo Ay Mahalaga sa Bayan!", captures the inherent capabilities of women with disabilities in all aspects of human endeavors despite their physical conditions.
