ANNOUNCEMENT

FOR : ALL HEADS OF CONSTITUTIONAL BODIES; DEPARTMENTS, BUREAUS, AND AGENCIES OF THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT; LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNITS; GOVERNMENT-OWNED AND CONTROLLED CORPORATIONS WITH ORIGINAL CHARTERS; AND STATE UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES

SUBJECT : Call for Nominations for the 2023 National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) Young Historian's Prize

Pursuant to its mandate to encourage and support the writing of Philippine history from the Filipino perspective, the NCCA is now accepting nominations for its 2023 NCCA Young Historian's Prize.

The NCCA National Committee on Historical Research conceptualized the Young Historian's Prize in recognition of the potential of young Filipino scholars based on their single original work in the field of Philippine history and historiography as it fosters a sense of national identity, pride, and interest in the country.

The Young Historian's Prize shall be given to a Filipino citizen between 21-40 years old at the time of submission whose work has met the following criteria:

1. Must be of single authorship;
2. Original;
3. Written in proper academic style;
4. Can either be published or publishable; and,
5. Must have used primary sources that can contribute to the enrichment of Philippine history and historiography.

Nominations shall be accepted only when the following are submitted and attached with proper documentation:

1. A duly accomplished nomination form;
2. Author's curriculum vitae;
3. NSO-certified birth certificate;
4. Notarized Sworn statement of authorship;

Bawat Kawani, Lingkod Bayani

5. Manuscript in a PDF file soft copy in CD or USB Flash Drive, and three sets of hard copies all of which should not bear the author's name or any reference to the author; and,
6. Two (2) endorsement letters from an academic institution, local historical society, or practicing historian.

The deadline for submission is on Wednesday, March 15, 2023. Nominations received beyond the announced deadline for submission shall not be considered.

All documents shall be submitted to:

The Young Historian's Prize Secretariat
Program Management Division
