TO : HEADS OF CONSTITUTIONAL BODIES;
DEPARTMENTS, BUREAUS AND AGENCIES OF THE
NATIONAL GOVERNMENT; LOCAL GOVERNMENT
UNITS; GOVERNMENT-OWNED AND/OR CONTROLLED
CORPORATIONS WITH ORIGINAL CHARTER; AND STATE UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES

SUBJECT : National Human Rights Consciousness Week

From December 4 to 10 of every year, the country celebrates the National Human Rights Consciousness Week, pursuant to Republic Act No. 9201. The celebration is spearheaded by the Commission on Human Rights (CHR).

This year's theme of the celebration is "Respect for Human Rights: The Key to Democracy, Peace and Development."

To enhance awareness and encourage promotion of human rights, all government agencies are enjoined to display on the facade of their respective building offices celebratory streamers (copy attached) for one (1) month, i.e., from November 23 to December 18, 2009. Heads of offices are also enjoined to organize meaningful programs and activities during the Human Rights Week.
